Your guide

A day trip beyond Cabo San Lucas can add culture, scenery and a different pace to your vacation. Routes and travel times depend on the itinerary, road conditions, stops and pickup location. Confirm the actual schedule before booking.

Todos Santos

• Todos Santos is a town north of Cabo San Lucas known for its historic center, galleries, shops and restaurants.

• A guided visit can help organize transportation and provide context, while independent travelers may prefer more time to explore at their own pace.

• Ask which stops are included and how much free time is planned.

La Paz and Balandra

• La Paz is the capital of Baja California Sur and offers a waterfront promenade, restaurants and access to nearby coastal areas.

• Balandra is known for its shallow turquoise waters and natural landscape. Access can be subject to visitor limits, schedules and local conservation rules.

• Do not assume entry is guaranteed. Confirm current access arrangements and what happens if limits or conditions affect the visit.

Plan the day

• Ask for the full itinerary, pickup location, departure and return estimates, meal arrangements and included entrance fees.

• Longer day trips involve substantial time on the road. Consider the needs of children, older travelers and anyone who may be uncomfortable with long drives.

• Bring sun protection, water, comfortable shoes and any personal essentials.

Respect local places

• Follow posted rules and guidance from local authorities and guides.

• Take all trash with you and avoid disturbing wildlife or sensitive habitats.

• Use authorized access points and respect visitor limits at protected areas.

Planning note
